drugs and firearms during a traffic stop on May 8, 2006. These pending state court matters are related to the instant offense.

- (3) Due to the nature and seriousness of the crime alleged, in combination with Defendant's felony criminal history and pending state court criminal matters related to the instant offense, release of the defendant would pose a risk to the community.
- (4) The defendant stipulates to detention.

Thus, there is no condition or combination of conditions that would reasonably assure future court appearances.

It is therefore ORDERED:

- (1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correctional facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences, or being held in custody pending appeal;
- (2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;
- (3) On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the correctional facility in which Defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
